

SUMMER STARS

CAMP FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

At Summer Stars Camp for the Performing Arts kids discover themselves and their potential through the arts. Through the risk-taking and hard work of artistic commitment, campers develop essential character and life skills: confidence, creativity, problem solving, leadership, and team building.

The kids served at Summer Stars Camp are economically disadvantaged students from all corners of New England and New York. In many cases, they have never spent time out of their neighborhoods, have never experienced a camp setting, and have never been part of a comprehensive program that speaks to their passions.

By meeting other kids with the same interests, by working with a caring staff that holds them to the highest standards, they learn that working hard makes it possible for them to achieve heights they never thought possible. They take these standards, this work ethic, and a renewed sense of self-worth into all facets of their lives.

Star light, star bright,
I wish to be a star tonight...

There is a magical place.
where, for ten days of the year,
children can play among the stars...
reach for the stars...
and maybe one day, even be a star.

Sound interesting?

Come with us, on a special, star-filled night, and see how you can help a child's wish come true.

Please join campers, staff, and supporters of the Summer Stars Camp for the Performing Arts for a cabaret evening with special guests Lordz of Brooklyn.
